EXPERIENCE

Okotoks Museum and Archives | at Heritage House

Prairie Sentinels: Okotoks Grain Elevators Temporary Photo Exhibit. To complement the art exhibits at the Okotoks Art Gallery, the museum's temporary photo exhibit will pay tribute to the grain elevators that have vanished from the Okotoks landscape. 10am-5pm, admission by donation 49 N Railway St (403.938.8969)

Okotoks Art Gallery | at the Station

Grain Elevators: Vanishing Prairie Landmarks by the Heritage Rug Hookers of Saskatoon. Stark and imposing, grain elevators hold a special place in the hearts of western folk. They are a metaphor for a way of life. They symbolize our agricultural heritage, which is the lifeblood of the prairies. Though near extinction, the memory of grain elevators remains near and dear to prairie hearts. 30 Canadian artists depict grain elevators with 40 diverse pieces. 10am-5pm, admission by donation 53 North Railway Street (403.938.3204)

Gone but Not Forgotten: an artist's interpretation by the Okotoks Art Gallery members. 10am-5pm, admission by donation 53 N Railway St

Rotary Performing Art Center

The Okotoks Arts Council (OAC) presents Jenny Allen and Leslie Alexander: Poignant songs, powerhouse performances, they captivate audiences with harmony vocals, guitars, washboard, harmonica and other instruments. Moving seamlessly from flat-out folk to rock'n roll to more mellow melodies, Allen & Alexander are a joy to behold. 7-9pm, Tickets $25 +GST Rush at the door $30, 3 Elma Street (403.938.3204)

Bistro Provence

Belly dancing at the Bistro: All dining customers are in for an exotic evening of Ellysia's graceful moves and powerful rhythms of this ancient dance. Wine tastings from local producer Chinook Honey also included – Chinook Arch Meadery. 5:30pm to close, free for dining customers. RSVP recommended. 52 North Railway Street (403.938.2224)
